

A level results in Wales: Summer 2021

Summer results

Due to different awarding arrangements, figures for 2020 and 2021 are not directly comparable with each other or with previous years.

Total A level awards

35,867 grades were awarded to 14,718 learners this summer.

This summer's grades were determined by schools and colleges using a wide range of evidence.

On average, 18-year-old A level learners took 2.5 A levels this summer, compared with 2.4 in summer 2020.

60.3% of 18-year-old candidates sat at least 3 A levels this summer.

38.3% of 18-year-olds taking 3 or more A levels achieved at least 3 As.

11.4% achieved at least 3 A*s.

2021 results by gender

	Female	Male
A*	21.7%	20.8%
A*-A	50.9%	44.8%
A*-E	99.3%	98.8%

Number of A levels taken

18-year-olds

Number of A levels taken	Number of learners	% of total
1	1,722	13.6
2	3,298	26.1
3	7,012	55.4
4	602	4.8
5	19	0.1
Total	12,653	100.0